

GRAFFOE LINK MAGAZINE EDITOR

After 9 years of dedicated and efficient service, Sarah, the Graffoe Link's Editor, has decided that she would like to retire.

Without an Editor, who is able to set out all the various elements of the magazine (apart from the advertising section) the Graffoe Link could not be produced.

The Graffoe Parochial Church Council is, therefore, looking for someone with the appropriate skills to take over from Sarah when she retires.

The Editor receives an honorarium of £110 per issue, ie 10 per year and would need to be able to work to a deadline, liaise with the printers and use Publisher software.

If this role would be of interest you, could you please apply, in the first instance, to Toni Butroid, email: toni.butroid@btinternet.com
